Course Delivery:

Work in class involves mainly listening and reading activities leading to oral discussion. Written work is developed in class as well as part of homework.

Students need to be prepared to take an active part in lessons whether in pairs, group work or whole-class work. Their ability to communicate ideas accurately in written French is developed by means of a comprehensive grammar programme. In order to develop confidence and fluency in speaking the language, additional sessions are arranged with the French Language Assistant. Students are expected to learn and revise vocabulary and undertake additional reading and research on chosen topics in their own time.

Course Content: The course may include the following themes:

Current trends in French-speaking society. (AS & A level)	Family, Cyber Society, Voluntary Work
Artistic Culture in French-speaking world. (AS & A level)	Contemporary francophone music, cinema, patriotism
Current issues in society (A level)	Diverse Society, Life for the marginalised, Crime
Political life (A level)	Teenagers, the right to vote, demonstrations, strikes, Politics and Immigration
Film (AS – either 1 film/text) (A level – 1 text & 1 film / 2 texts)	One of the following: - Au revoir les enfants - La Haine - L'auberge espagnole - Un long dimanche de fiançailles - Entre les murs - Les 400 coups
