

	What we do	When we do it	How it helps students to develop our Alive theme
Year 12	Teach Early African Kingdoms 1400-1800	Term 1-4	Students develop an understanding of the importance of justice and respect through understanding that it is an injustice that such areas of history have previously been ignored and that African History should be respected in its own right.
Year 13	Teach Russia 1855-1964	Term 1-4	Students develop an understanding of the importance of justice and respect through studying how workers, peasants and minorities were treated by various Russian rulers, and about how the judicial system developed.

Term	Alive Theme	What we do	How it helps students to develop that Alive theme
1	I value Diversity I value Trust and Truth I am Organised I can Review	Study of African Kingdoms Tudor Source Analysis Exam Questions Prepare for Assessments	Students study a diverse range of History, including a unit on African Kingdoms. They also consistent analyse trust and truth through evaluating sources in their Tudors unit. They learn how to organise their knowledge when answering exam questions, and they also learn how to review their knowledge when revising for assessments at the end of each unit.
2	I value Diversity I value Trust and Truth I am Organised I can Review
3	I value Diversity I value Trust and Truth I am Organised I can Review
4	Diversity I value Trust and Truth I am Organised I can Review
5	I can Research I value Trust and Truth I am Organised I can Review	Begin Coursework Tudor Source Analysis Exam Questions Prepare for Exams
6	I can Research I value Trust and Truth I am Organised I can Review

Term	Alive Theme	What we do	How it helps students to develop that Alive theme
1	I can Research I am Organised I can Review I value Justice and Respect	Coursework Coursework/Exam Technique Revision for assessments Studying the experience of the Russia people.	Students will continue to develop their research skills through their Coursework and will begin to organise their knowledge as they write up. They also develop an understanding of justice and respect as they study the experience of the Russian population. They learn how to organise their knowledge when answering exam questions, and they also learn how to review their knowledge when revising for exams.
2	I can Research I am Organised I can Review I value Justice and Respect
3	I can Research I am Organised I can Review I value Justice and Respect
4	I am Organised I can Review I value Justice and Respect	Revision for assessments Studying the experience of the Russia people.	Student continue to develop an understanding on justice and respect by studying the experience of the Russia people. They will continue to learn how to organise their knowledge when answering exam questions, and they also learn how to review their knowledge when revising for exams.
5	I am Organised I can Review I value Justice and Respect		