

Assessment	Details	How is this assessment marked, moderated and feedback to students?
1	Inspector Calls English Paper 1 mock	This assessment will be marked using the appropriate Eduqas mark schemes by the teacher, using exemplar material to guide accuracy. A sample of each teachers marking is moderated and then students receive their assessment and grade with 2-3 WWW/EBI points. There will be a follow up Read and Respond lesson where students improve their writing. The teacher will signal which area of text to improve. Students highlight and annotate their improvements.
2	Poetry exam question Transactional paper 2	As Above
3	Macbeth extract question Full Literature paper 1 mock	As Above
Homework	How is homework used to support learning?	How is homework marked and feedback to students
	Homework is set once a week by the teacher. This can take a variety of forms but needs to last around an hour. Each teacher sets the differentiated homework appropriate for their class.	Teachers will check homework has been completed on time and to a high standard but there is no expectation for this to be marked. Students may be asked to peer assess homework at the beginning of a lesson.
In class and in books	What strategies are used to deliver effective feedback and assessment to students during lessons?	What marking and feedback would we expect to see in an exercise book or folder in this subject?
	Guided learning and marking tables are facilitated and the use of a visualizer gives opportunity for live marking in a lesson. Verbal assessment through questioning and debate is used in a variety of forms to support teacher judgment of learning.	One piece of 'mid term assessment' which is selected by the teacher. An end of Term assessment at the end of a unit. This is a standardised, unseen assessment which is marked using the Eduqas mark schemes.
Any other information

Assessment	Details	How is this assessment marked, moderated and feedback to students?
1	19 th century novel question Reading paper 2	This assessment will be marked using the appropriate Eduqas mark schemes by the teacher, using exemplar material to guide accuracy. A sample of each teachers marking is moderated and then students receive their assessment and grade with 2-3 WWW/EBI points. There will be a follow up Read and Respond lesson where students improve their writing. The teacher will signal which area of text to improve. Students highlight and annotate their improvements.
2	Transactional writing Inspector Calls	As Above
3	Literature Paper 1 Language Paper 1	As Above

Homework	How is homework used to support learning?	How is homework marked and feedback to students
	Homework is set once a week by the teacher. This can take a variety of forms but needs to last around an hour. Each teacher sets the differentiated homework appropriate for their class.	Teachers will check homework has been completed on time and to a high standard but there is no expectation for this to be marked. Students may be asked to peer assess homework at the beginning of a lesson.

In class and in books	What strategies are used to deliver effective feedback and assessment to students during lessons?	What marking and feedback would we expect to see in an exercise book or folder in this subject?
	Guided learning and marking tables are facilitated and the use of a visualizer gives opportunity for live marking in a lesson. Verbal assessment through questioning and debate is used in a variety of forms to support teacher judgment of learning.	One piece of 'mid term assessment' which is selected by the teacher. An end of Term assessment at the end of a unit. This is a standardised, unseen assessment which is marked using the Eduqas mark schemes.
Any other information		