

Key Stage 5 – A level Fine Art

Year	Knowledge	Skills	Alive themes	Justice and Respect
12	Contextual knowledge is developed from the outset through lesson tasks and discussion of a range of artists. Reference made to transition tasks through analysis of artist task using the "form, content, process" format. This links directly to AO1 and AO3	A foundation of skills are delivered through several introductory projects, each with their own thematic starting point. Practical skills to include a range of Fine Art responses such as drawing, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture and written work.	Creativity, interdependence, research, resilience, communication are at the heart of the Assessment Objectives	Exploration of a range of artists, issue-based work which intrinsically draws upon British Values.
13	Personal Investigation tasks and articulation talks build upon the analytical skills from Y12.	Continued develop Written essay

How does this prepare students for the next phase?
