

Key Stage 5 - Business

Year	Knowledge	Skills	Alive themes	Justice and Respect
12	develop an enthusiasm for studying business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● gain an holistic understanding of business in a range of contexts</li> <li>● develop a critical understanding of organisations and their ability to meet society's needs and wants</li> <li>● understand that business behaviour can be studied from a range of perspectives</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● generate enterprising and creative approaches to business opportunities, problems and issues</li> <li>● acquire a range of relevant business and generic skills, including decision making, problem solving, the challenging of assumptions and critical analysis.</li> <li>● apply numerical skills in a range of business contexts.</li> </ul>	I can Question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● develop as effective and independent students, and as critical and reflective thinkers with enquiring minds</li> </ul> I can Research: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● investigate and analyse real business opportunities and issues to construct well-argued, well-evidenced, balanced and structured arguments, demonstrating their depth and breadth of understanding of business.</li> </ul> Interdependence: the interdependent nature of business activity, influences on business, business operations, finance, marketing and human resources; and how these interdependencies underpin business decision making. Interdependencies in the Supply chain for a business and how this can affect businesses ability to provide consumers with their needs and wants. I can contribute: How businesses including social enterprises can have a positive effect on local communities. How Students can progress through their career in a particular industry to add value to society whether on a local, national or International level. Students are encouraged to be ambitious and have a positive impact on the world.	be aware of the ethical dilemmas and responsibilities faced by organisations and Individuals under the umbrella of 'Business Ethics' and the influence this exerts on Behaviour and decision making.
13	Build on business concepts, business terminology learned in Y12 to underpin the development from Small business to large businesses including changes to Business objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Further develop a critical understanding of organisations and their ability to meet society's needs and wants.</li> </ul>	rigorous, through setting and maintaining standards over time, developing reliable and valid assessment tasks and processes, and generating confidence in end users of the knowledge, skills and competencies of certified students	I can Question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● develop as effective and independent students, and as critical and reflective thinkers with enquiring minds</li> </ul> I can Research: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● investigate and analyse real business opportunities and issues to construct well-argued, well-evidenced, balanced and structured arguments, demonstrating their depth and breadth of understanding of business. Students are asked to undertake research using the Business blog and share findings with the group periodically as a way of building the skill of 'Application' one of the key Assessment Objectives.</li> </ul> Interdependence: the interdependent nature of business activity, influences on business, business operations, finance, marketing and human resources; and how these interdependencies underpin business decision making. Interdependencies in the Supply chain for a business and how this can affect businesses ability to provide consumers with their needs and wants. I can contribute: How businesses including social enterprises can have a positive effect on local communities. How Students can progress through their career in a particular industry to add value to society.	When studying Business strategy and decision making students should factor in the potential impact of decisions on a wide range of stakeholders and understand the ethical dilemmas and responsibilities faced by organisations and Individuals under the umbrella of 'Business Ethics' and the influence this exerts on Behaviour and decision making.