

Assessment	Details	How is this assessment marked, moderated and feedback to students?
1	By the end of term 1, students will have completed a series of theory units, each one being assessed by a mock exam question.	Marked by staff, fed back to individuals, recorded in a spreadsheet to build up a picture of ongoing progress and highlight gaps in knowledge.
2	By January 2022... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Continuation of theory unit mock questions</li> <li>A partial mock exam on the unit areas covered (units 1.1 – 1.8)</li> <li>First mini NEA completed in term 1 (angle poise lamp)</li> </ul>	As above Marked against exam board mark scheme. Results fed back as grade and individual feedback given Feedback given individually on each presentation
3	By June 2022... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Continuation of theory unit mock questions</li> <li>A full mock exam (2 papers)</li> <li>Timbers project (a mini NEA)</li> </ul>	As above Marked against exam board mark scheme. Results fed back as grade and individual feedback given <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Moderated in staff meetings</li> <li>Fed back to individual students in the form of a grade with areas for improvement</li> </ul>
Homework	How is homework used to support learning?	How is homework marked and feedback to students
	Homework is used to prepare students for new theory content (flipped learning) or to extend learning. It is also used to completed aspects of coursework independently.	Homework that forms part of theory content is not formally marked but will be checked for completion. Marking and feedback is detailed in the top box. Homework for coursework is marked by staff on an ongoing basis and feedback given via the project presentation for improvement.
In class and in books	What strategies are used to deliver effective feedback and assessment to students during lessons?	What marking and feedback would we expect to see in an exercise book or folder in this subject?
	Self-assessment Peer-assessment Verbal feedback Whole class feedback sheet	Specific teacher feedback, grades relating to mock exams or coursework.

Assessment	Details	How is this assessment marked, moderated and feedback to students?
1	By the end of term 1, students will have completed all theory units, each one being assessed by a mock exam question.	Marked by staff, fed back to individuals, recorded in a spreadsheet to build up a picture of ongoing progress and highlight gaps in knowledge.
2	By June 2022... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A full mock exam (2 papers)</li> <li>• Completed NEA</li> </ul>	Marked against exam board mark scheme. Results fed back as grade and individual feedback given <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Moderated in staff meetings</li> <li>• Fed back to individual students in the form of a grade with areas for improvement.</li> </ul>
Homework	How is homework used to support learning?	How is homework marked and feedback to students
	Homework is used to prepare students for new theory content (flipped learning) or to extend learning. It is also used to completed aspects of coursework independently.	Homework that forms part of theory content is not formally marked but will be checked for completion. Marking and feedback is detailed in the top box. Homework for coursework is marked by staff on an ongoing basis and feedback given via the project presentation for improvement.
In class and in books	What strategies are used to deliver effective feedback and assessment to students during lessons?	What marking and feedback would we expect to see in an exercise book or folder in this subject?
	Self-assessment Peer-assessment Verbal feedback Whole class feedback sheet	Specific teacher feedback, grades relating to mock exams or coursework.